“

I've always wanted to be part of something greater than myself which is why I've always wanted to be a nurse. Searching for nursing school was a hustle but the first time I saw WNCN I knew this was the place for me. It was everything I was looking for. It's a great and diverse community with so much to offer.

I appreciate the opportunity that my school's partnership with WNCC gives me to experience the challenge of college classes in addition to those my high school offers.
