Human Services

Associate of Arts

Associate of Applied Science

Alliance • Scottsbluff • Sidney

The Human Services Program provides students with general skills in helping others in need. Graduates from this program are prepared to gain entry-level positions in a variety of human services setting or pursue licensure as an alcohol and drug counselor. Graduates may also continue their education at a four-year college or university.

Objectives

- Develop an understanding of the human service field.
- Learn about community agencies and how they approach behavior problems.
- Develop skills in basic listening, interviewing, and communication skills.
- Provide the student with a background in the behavioral sciences.

Notes

- Recommended plans of study are presented below. However, students should remember that their faculty advisor will help develop a personal plan of student consistent with individual academic and career goals.

Associate of Arts

AA.5115A (61-62 credits)

This degree consists of program-specific coursework designed to enhance practical helping skills and provide electives of interest to the student in addition to the general education requirements necessary to transfer to a four-year college or university. Students receive a solid foundation to continue their education and pursue advanced training as human services professionals.

Information Technology

Associate of Arts

Alliance • Scottsbluff • Sidney

This program provides students with a sound basis for further study in information technology, typically leading to a baccalaureate degree in information technology, cybersecurity, information systems, or a related field. This program acquaints students with the principles and practices of operating systems, programming languages, database, network design, network and server administration, and security. These principles prepare students with practical knowledge to apply to the remainder of a baccalaureate degree program.

Objectives

- Provide coursework for the first two years of a baccalaureate degree in information technology or information systems.
- Promote and help students develop lifelong learning skills needed for professional and personal growth.
- Provide a basis for student understanding of the principles, concepts, and theories that effect information technology by offering specific application, computer information systems, and programming courses.
- Promote and help students develop lifelong learning skills needed for professional and personal growth.

Notes

- All of these programs are also available online.
- Students who plan to transfer to a four-year college or university should consult their faculty and transfer advisors early in their WNCC career to determine a curriculum best suited to their transfer goals.
